SCORING THE CLUBS

Screamin' Jay Hawkins

FRIDAY, JUNE 26

Screamin' Jay Hawkins at Club Lingerie.

est known as the Black Prince of Horror Rock & Roll, Mr. Hawkins is much more than just an extravagant showman; he was introduced to the music business by Wynonie Harris, and coached on the piano by Errol Garner, Nat "King" Cole and Charles Brown. Today his piano is a rough, romping New Orleans-style wallop. He plays fierce, discordant blues and sings in a rich, soaring baritone all about little demons, frenzy and Miss Clawdy. Even with his established reputation as a Hero of Rock & Roll, Screamin' Jay is, more than anything else, an outlaw bluesman, capable of anything.

We also recommend:

Adolescents, D.M.C., Aggression, Asexuals at Fender's. Screamin' Sirens, The Hangmen, Lovedog at Raji's. Paladins, Kingpins at the Palomino.

SATURDAY, JUNE 27

Jim Carroll, Dancing Hoods, Divine Weeks, Phast and Bulbous at Club Lingerie.

hile the marriage of poetry and rock & roll is an execrable union (worthy of backalley abortion), the man who started it all, Jim Carroll, is back to a purely oral format. At the Lingerie he'll be reading from his new book, Forced Entries: The Downtown Diaries, 1971-1973. Wax nostalgic over tales of the Velvets, Dylan, Allen Ginsberg, the wicked lure of morphia, and more NYC culture at its weirdest. Also, groove to the sounds of the Dancing Hoods, themselves N.Y. refugees, who play a fine, half-sweet/half-acid style of rock & roll well worth checking out.

We also recommend:

Celebrity Skin (with guest celebrity Craig Lee), Bachelors Anonymous, Fourwaycross, Schnell, Dumbkopf, and art by Matt Clements and Mirakel. Goodbye to X = Art Benefit, 827 Hilldale Ave., W. Hlywd. (213) 278-4798.

Cruzados, World's Cutest Killers, Wild Cards at the Music Machine. Pontiac Bros., Snakefarm at Al's Bar.

Tom Rush at McCabe's.

SUNDAY, JUNE 28

Al Kooper, Billy Bremner Band, Bootwhip at the Palomino.

ixties warhorse Al Kooper has been around the rock block a few times, and continues to fight back against the "dinosaur" syndrome. He's got some strong support tonight, with former Rockpile plectrist and Chuck Berry riffmeister Billy Bremner and his band - Wales' leading export (after Tom Jones). Also on the bill is the stalwart bop and boogie of Jerry Sikorski's Bootwhip.
