IGUANA CAFE, 10943 Camarillo St., N. Hlywd. Get a dose of Valley bohemia. High quality tie-dyed T-shirts, books, board games and coffee and tea (no espresso or cappuccino — too patrician) and first-rate performances are what you get here. Named after owner Ino's pet reptile, the Iguana is upbeat and down-home, and the People's Democratic Republic of Iguanaland presents music or poetry most every night of the week. Open Fri.-Sat., 3 p.m.-4 a.m.; Sun., 3 p.m.-1 a.m.; Tues.-Thurs. 3 p.m.-1 a.m. (818) 763-7735.

MAMA PAJAMA'S, 3786 Durango Ave., W.L.A. It doesn't look like a place where you'd expect to find a coffee-house, it's off a rather empty stretch of Venice Blvd. near wholesalers and body shops, but I guess even wholesalers and mechanics need good espresso, music, art and vintage clothing. Festivities Fri.-Sun. & Tues. nights, cover varies. (310) 558-4904.

Fri.—Songwriter showcase, featuring Cindy Kalmenson, Fran Lucci, Kat & the Rhythm Rats, 8 p.m.; $5.

Every Tues.—Open-mike night, 7:30 p.m.; free.

MOSCOW NIGHTS, 11345 Ventura Blvd., Studio City. Authentic Russian food and lively Russian entertainment make this restaurant an out-of-the-ordinary experience. The menu features delicacies such as Siberian-style duckling, black or red caviar, chicken Kiev and Ukrainian cabbage borscht. Full bar with a large selection of exotic vodkas, more than 100 in all. $20 min. (818) 980-8854.

Every Fri.-Sun.—The house band, under the guidance of leader Misha Shufutinsky, performs old Russian Gypsy songs; Fri.-Sat., 8:30 p.m.-1:45 a.m.; Sun., 7:30 p.m.-mid.

PIKME-UP, 5437 W. Sixth St. There's always something fun and funky here, from the thrift-store furnishings to the vintage clothing boutique to the works of local artists gracing the walls. An amazing array of snacks and libations available, along with all kinds of entertainment most every night. No cover, but a donation to performers is requested. Sun.-Thurs., noon-2 a.m.; Fri.-Sat., noon-4 a.m. (213) 896-9348.

Fri.-Thurs.—Call for late bookings
THE ROSE GARDEN PERFORMANCE CENTER, 665 N. Robertson Blvd., W. Hlywd. The Rose Tattoo joined forces with that exotic Pacific Palisades nightspot, Erika's, to form this double-your-pleasure entertainment center. The restaurant's glamorous California "country house" look and nouvelle cuisine remain unchanged, however the upstairs room now plays home to Erika's, while the Rose holds court downstairs, both providing an elegant backdrop for the town's freshest talent. Cocktail hour 5-7:30 p.m.; Mon.-Fri., in the Lounge. Sunday buffet brunch, 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m.; $10.95. Show cover varies. (310) 854-4455 or 854-4458.

Fri.-Sat.—Call for schedule.
Sun.—Erika's: Gayiel Von and friends, 8:30 p.m. The Rose: Call for late bookings.

Tues.—The Rose: Linda Gerard's Shower of Stars, with Todd Schroeder, 8 p.m.

Wed.-Thurs.—Call for late bookings
SIDEWALK CAFE, 1401 Ocean Front Walk, Venice. Hamburgers, pizza, omelets are served, not to mention top-notch blender drinks and a separate bar, but the real action takes place in the foreground of this cafe's ocean and mountain view. A blues-singing Sikh on roller skates, a comedian juggling chainsaws, and a skateboarding grandmother are but part of the passing boardwalk parade. (310) 399-5547.

Fri.-Sun.—Call for schedule.
Every Mon.—Phil Kennard
Every Tues.—Garrison White
Every Wed.—Bob Cowsill

Every Wed.—Oliver Bennette Group, traditional jazz, 8 p.m.; no cover.

VAN GO'S EAR, 9 Westminster Ave., Venice. Their slogan is "coffee, bedlam, always open," and that doesn't even do justice to the cafe's freewheeling atmosphere. Coffee, cappuccino, desserts and a plethora of performers most nights. Park on Speedway or Market dusk till dawn, Pacific Ave. 8 p.m.-8 a.m. Sometimes a cover, plus a nominal min. Tired of the same old beverage-and-song thing? Check this out: "Le Hole das Black," an opera cabaret comprising underground musicians and performance artists, is taking up residence at the Lost Studio, 130 S. La Brea Ave. every Sat., 10:30 p.m. Members of this updated commedia dell'arte include Joan Collopy & the Dogs of Desire Band, flamenco guitarist Gabrie Reyna, dancer Rudy Ornelas, blues duo Jesse Easter & Fred Anchondo and bon-goist Charlie Becker. Every Wed. night at Art, the far-out and groovy '60s coffeehouse, you can experience your own flashback! It's psychedelic night with Mushroom, beginning at 9:30 p.m. For a truly coolly schizoid experience, have dinner at Toi, the Thai restaurant with whom Art shares its quarters, 7505½ Sunset Blvd., Hlywd. (213) 874-8062.

Check out a little Late Night Music at Truly Yours:

Sun.-Thurs., jazz, blues, funk, R&B and more are yours to be had from 11 p.m. till 2 a.m. And indulge in a little something from the restaurant's eclectic international menu. 18588 Ventura Blvd., Tarzana. (818) 996-3131.

Deco reigns at the Moonlight Tango Cafe, sort of a combination of '20s speakeasy and '40s Hollywood, replete with singing waiters who do a mean tango version of "Happy Birthday." Excellent food, full bar, no cover. Currently featuring the vocal talents of Miss Lenetta Kidd, every Tues.-Sun., 7 p.m. And every Mon., it's the brand-new Big Band Night The Hollywood All-Stars, an 18-piece swing band with leaders Low Malin & Harvey R. BOGART'S, 6288 E. Pacific Coast Hwy. (in the Marina Pacifica Mall), Long Beach. Located at the L.A./O.C. cusp (which makes for an interesting crowd) the room is a strictly utilitarian midline Anytown U.S.A. rock club, but that meat-and-potatoes sensibility makes for no-nonsense presentation of acts ranging from locals to national touring bands. The adjacent Bohemian Cafe features acoustic sets, plus there's a Mexican kitchen and two full bars and acres of free parking. (310) 594-8976 or 594-8975
