▪ CAFE LARGO, 432 N. Fairfax Ave. Anna and Jean Pierre have teamed up to create an intimate "nouveau bistro," which serves eclectic French and Italian cuisine, including wonderful crepes and pastas. Entertainment, presented nightly, is avant-cabaret: comedy, jazz, acoustic music and the infamous readings, which draw the finest of "brat packers" and paparazzi alike. Beer, wine and an interesting selection of champagne cocktails. (213) 852-1073 or 852-1851.

Fri.—Lypsinka (a.k.a. John Epperson) in The History of Drag in 30 Minutes, 9 p.m.; Bachelors Anonymous, moody electronic pop, 10:30 p.m., Gothic Hut, downtown art rock, mid.

Sat.—Lypsinka, 9 p.m.; The Royal Crown Revue, kings of gangster bop, 9:30 & 11:30 p.m.

Sun.—Samb'in, Brazilian samba with singer Taquinho; Jana Allen, singer.

Mon.—Roadtown Productions and Barney Sackett (who produces all those great variety shows up at Carlos & Charlie's) present a night of variety, music, comedy and theater with MC Gayiel Von, 8:30 p.m.

Tues.—Poetry in Motion. See Readings.

Wed.—Guys . . . Or Dolls, vaudevillian musical drag that "ain't no drag," 9:30 p.m.

Thurs.—Capitol Records artist Kaziah Jones,
