Bachelors Anonymous Announces the Release of "What's This Feeling?" Single

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

21 December 2021 – Winter Solstice and
Birthday of Michael Tilson Thomas

Los Angeles, CA – Bachelors Anonymous (1984–1992) is pleased to offer a new single "What's This Feeling?" on Bandcamp, iTunes, Spotify, for streaming and digital download.

"What's This Feeling?" originally was recorded in 1991 but never released. It's been remixed and remastered for your listening pleasure and is the first track from the upcoming 2022 album The Big Picture.

Writing in the pages of Music Connection, critic Tom Kidd remarked:

The music of Bachelors Anonymous shows elements borrowed from such liberated groups as Bronski Beat, Communards, and Erasure. These points are mixed with classical (as opposed to classic) elements from a shared love of folk and church music.

The Bachelors are performance artists and social realists: I was always expecting that undercurrent of danger to rear its ugly head.

This brings to nineteen of over two dozen songs the Bachelors are remixing and remastering for digital distribution.

Bachelors Anonymous is the creation of Los Angeles musicians Rob Berg and David Hughes, with a little help from their friends. B.A.'s work treads the boundaries of music, theater and art.

As Bachelors Anonymous, Berg and Hughes performed their original material at venues ranging from poolside at a West Hollywood health club to large concert halls. In addition to a six-song cassette and 45 RPM single, they completed a music video, Looking For You, with screenplay co-written by performance artist Tim Bennett and directed by Adam Soch.

Their work for theater began in 1984 collaborating with John Fleck and Lance Loud on In a Viennese Vein for the first annual Zombie Jamboree at Lhasa Club. In 1986 they composed the music for John Fleck's award-winning I Got The He-Be-She-Be's, directed by David Schweizer, as well as the score for the 1987 UCLA Theater Arts production of Megan Terry's Home. In December 1990 they provided the music for Bachelors, choreographed by Anne Atwell-Zoll for the Terri Lewis Dance Ensemble. Two months later they composed the score for Made in L.A., for the Rudy Perez Performance Ensemble, featuring Perez's award-winning solo "Remain in Light." Between the two they created the score for the San Francisco production of Suitcase by Kobo Abe (Woman in the Dunes) at The LAB.

Robert Berg (vocals/keyboards/composer) was born in Saskatchewan and was classically trained in piano and flute. He has been composing and performing since 1971. He was previously a founding member of both The Mystery Group in San Francisco and The Razor's Edge in Hollywood. He is the composer of the acclaimed AIDS! The Musical!

David Hughes (vocals/lyrics) was born and raised in the Rocky Mountains. After years of working as a full-time political activist and organizer, and an attempt at a formal education in music and art, his solo performances in 1980-81 led to the pan-sexual rap group Age of Consent. He studied and/or collaborated with poet Alan Ginsberg, choreographer Rudy Perez, and performer Josie Roth, among others.
